Court yesterday morning before court was opened.

The trouble was in regard to a deposition in a case in which the attorneys were on opposite sides. Mr. Fisse, who represented the plaintiff, said he had given the deposition to Mr. Jones, and that Mr. Jones had not returned it. Mr. Jones insisted that he had returned it.

The suit was that of the Interurban Construction Company against Harry E. Fayes for $10,500, growing out of the mainculation of bonds issued for the purpose of building a railroad between East St. Louis and Edwardsville, Ill. Judgment was rendered yesterday against Hayes for $11,000.

While the case was being tried the quarrel was renewed. Judge Ferriss ordered the attorneys to proceed with the case, stating that he was not there for the surprise of passing on physical encounters, but to attend to court matters. ORDER OF COLUMBIAN KNIGHTS.

To the Officers and Members of Express Lodge, No. 73, Order Columbian Knights—I beg herewith to extend to the officers and members of Express Lodge, No. 73, O. C. The Republic's Sunday prize color page contest is still on and the juvenile par-ticipants are increasing in number with the assing of each week. Since the number passing of each week. Since from three of prizes offered was increased from three to twenty-five the judges' work in selectinners has been greatly facilitated.
juvenile artists entered into the sixth opening series, and judging from the num ber of contributions sent into The Republic office the contest seems to be growing in favor rather than losing popularity.

It was an easy matter for the judges to distinguish the paintings which had been done by brush from those upon which a cloth had been used. The even finish of the former was quite noticeable. Communications from the youngsters con-tinue to pour into The Republic office, but, owing to the lack of space, they cannot all be published. Following are a few of them: Dear Mr. Editor: I tried hard last week to get a prize, but will try again this time. My brother got a box, but he won't let me use them. Good-by, ADELAIDE PARKHURST. St. Louis, Mo. May 18.—My name is Harry Volker. Horticultural Exhibits Capture United States Ambassador Going to City of Mexico.

General Powell Clayton, United States Ambassador to Mexico, passed through St. Louis yesterday on his way from Washing-ton, D. C., to the City of Mexico. He spent ton, D. C., to the City of Mexico. He spent the day visiting friends and receiving calls at his room at the Planters Hotel.

General Clayton has spent the last two weeks in resting, and reports that he is in perfect health and eager to take up the duties of his office. When asked his views on the possibility of bringing back to this country Murrell and Kratz, who fied to Mexico to avoid trial on the charge of bribery. General Clayton stated that he had nothing to add to his statement on the subject made when he was in St. Louis about a month ago. At that time he said it was his belief that under the existing laws in the United States and Mexico it would not be possible to bring the refugees back.

Nashville, Ill.. May 24.—A 4-inch rain fell here to-day, the heaviest in eighteen months. The rain came at the right time to save the oats, which would have been a failure in a short while. The rain was not accompanied by any wind, which proved a blessing to the heavy wheat now standing in this county.
